DETAILED ACTION

On January 10, 2008, an Office Action was sent to the Applicant rejecting claims

1-10. On April 10, 2008, the Applicant responded with arguments.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Stolz (2003/0125997) in view of Spielman (7,113,914), as set forth in the previous Office Action.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed April 10, 2008 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The Applicant argues that neither reference discloses or teaches assessing risk associated with regulatory and statutory compliance; assessing risk in data processing apparatus and method for identifying, managing, and quantifying risks and associated control procedures; or assessing potential losses in risk areas. In response, Stolz discloses a method whereby a questionnaire is formulated to assess the risk of a user comprising detecting, occurrence, severity, and then totaling the risk score to determine risk (See fig.1-2). Spielman teaches a method for assessing risk for any type of risk. The Examiner found it to have been obvious to combine both references, in order to assess ALL areas of risk. The references may be applicable to any area in which a user wishes to assess risk. Therefore, the Examiner is interpreting the references as reading onto the limitations substantially as claimed.

Conclusion

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Lalita M. Hamilton whose telephone number is (571) 272-6743. The examiner can normally be reached on Tuesday-Thursday (6:30-2:30).
